Defendant (including ref.)	[Redacted]
Date	7 September 2021

To the Defendant

The claimant has objected to the rate of payment you offered. The court has therefore decided the rate at which you should pay. You must pay the claimant £1,777.36 for debt (and interest to date of judgment) and £115.00 for costs. You must pay the claimant the total of

by instalments of the first payment to reach the claimant by

£630.78
7 October 2021

per month

and on or before this date each month until the debt has been paid

Warning

If you ignore this order your goods may be removed and sold, or other enforcement proceedings may be taken against you. If this happens further costs will be added. If your circumstances change and you cannot pay, ask at the court office what you can do.

Note to claimant and defendant

Either of you may object to the rate of payment fixed. You must apply to the court with your reasons within 16 days. The 16 days run from the date on the envelope in which the judgment was posted. A form is available from the court. A hearing may be arranged and you will be told when and where it will take place. If you live in, or carry on business in, another court's area, the claim may be transferred to that court.

If judgment is for £5,000 or more, or is in respect of a debt which attracts contractual or statutory interest for late payment, the claimant may be entitled to further interest.

Note to the defendant

Details of this judgment will be entered in a public register, the Register of Judgments, Orders and Fines. They will then be passed to credit reference agencies, who will supply them to credit grantors and others seeking information on your financial standing. This will make it difficult for you to get credit. A list of credit reference agencies is available from Registry Trust Ltd, 173/175 Cleveland Street, London, W1T 6QR.

If you pay in full within one month, you can ask the court to cancel the entry on the Register. You will need to give the court proof of payment. If you also want a Certificate of Cancellation from the court, there is a fee for this. If you pay the debt in full after one month, you can ask the court to mark the entry as satisfied and, for a fee, obtain a Certificate of Satisfaction to prove that the debt has been paid.
