

Your Source for Local Breaking News

Friday, June 18, 2021

Home Obituaries News Business Sports Opinion Arts & Living Digital Edition Classifieds Legal Notices

TOP STORY

UK photographer files copyright lawsuit against Catawese

By ROB NAYLOR THE NEWS-ITEM rob_n@newsitem.com Aug 8, 2019 0

WILLIAMSPORT — Catawese Coach Lines Inc. is a defendant in a copyright lawsuit filed Monday by professional photographer Richard Southall, of the United Kingdom.

The lawsuit, filed in the U.S. Middle District Court of Pennsylvania, accuses the Zerbe Township bus company of unauthorized reproduction and public display of a copyrighted photograph of the Genting Hotel Casino. The photo is owned and registered by Southall.

(0) comments

Most Read

Articles

1. Police seize 110 grams of meth, more than a pound of heroin in drug bust
2. Three injured in head-on crash near Hickory Corners
3. Jeremy Godin
4. Kruskie held for court on all charges in death of ex-girlfriend
5. Nicholas D. Ney
6. Developer for proposed medical facility pulls out of project
7. Victor Anthony Swaboski
8. William J. 'Bill' Mielke Jr.
9. Man dies after allegedly firing on troopers